SOME ROARS MADE OVER NEW ORDER

Wilson Will Enforce Police Regulations On Delinquents

Following the complaint made by the Merchants' Association regarding the removal of garbage from the main business streets during the day when it was offensive to downtown people, and the subsequent order issued by Road Supervisor Wilson, for all mer chants to have their garbage out ready for collection before 6 o'clock, a roar has gone up from numerous merchants who do not feel inclined to obey the

In any of the big cities on the Coast, the refusal of any business man to provide a proper receptable for garbage, and have it on the curb at a our ready for the carts, means arrest, with a possible fine or impris onment. There is a police ordinance in force in Honolulu, and should be closely observed, if the business men have the sanitary welfare of the city at heart. Wilson intends to follow the matter up closely, and asks that merchants cooperate with him in the collection of garbage. It is sug-gested that either barrels be used or solid hoppers that will not spill the debris causing a great deal of extra

BIG PAYROLL FOR

Completes Warrants For July

Honolulu has a big payroll for to-morrow. All of the salaried officials, clerks and other employes will draw clerks and other employes will draw their checks, from Mayor Fern down to the office boy. All except the county and city laborers who were paid on July 21 up to that time. County Auditor Bicknell completed the payroll today, including 387 warrants. aggregating $23,810.

"It was a great surprise to figure up such a large amount," said Mr. Eleknell, "especially as it did not include laborers, but the increase is caused by the various new inspectors caused by the various new inspectors and other officials added by the recent ordinances passed by the Board of Supervisors." The work of compiling and drawing the warrants has kept the Auditor and his clerks very busy for over a week.
